New York, NY 10038

Dear Mr. Desai,

On behalf of New York State Department of Economic Development, Division of Minority and Women's Business Development (DMWBD) has completed its review of your application for State Certification as a Woman-Owned Business Enterprise and has determined that your firm meets eligibility requirements for certification, pursuant to Executive Law, Article 15-A..

We are pleased to inform you that the firm of Derive Technologies LLC has been granted status as Minority/Owned Business Enterprise. Your business will be listed in the State's Directory of Certified Businesses with the following list of principal products or services:

2271 – Computer Hardware
2283 – Computers

144 - Computer Software Stores
2213 – Network Consulting

Certification status is not intended to imply that the State of New York guarantees your company's capability to perform on state contracts, nor does it imply that your company is guaranteed any State business.

Be advised that your certification expires 3 years from the date of this letter or unless you are contacted by this Office for recertification.

Please remember that any changes in your company that affect ownership, managerial and/or operational control, must be reported to this Office within thirty (30) days of such changes; including changes to company name, business address, telephone numbers, principal products/services, and bonding capacity. At such time as it is necessary for your company to be recertified, you will be notified by this office.

If your certification is questioned by any public or private entity, please direct the inquiry to this Office for clarification.

Thank you for your cooperation. On behalf of the State of New York, I wish you luck in your business endeavors, particularly those involving State agencies.

Sincerely,

Scott Munson

Dear Mr. Desai:

The Department of Small Business Services, Division of Economic and Financial Opportunity (“SBS/DEFO”) has completed its review of your application for certification as a Minority and Woman Owned Business Enterprise and has determined that your firm meets the eligibility requirement pursuant to Title 66, Chapter 11, Subchapter B of the Rules of The City Of New York governing the Minority and Woman Owned Business Enterprise Certification Program. We will list your business in the New York City M/WBE Directory of Certified Businesses with the principal products or services you selected with the NYC Vendor Enrollment Center.

Your status as a certified company does not imply that the City guarantees your capability to perform on contracts or be awarded City business. However, the City will make every effort to market and promote your company to City agencies and their procurement staff and advise you of upcoming purchase opportunities. If your certification status is questioned by any public or private entity, please direct the inquiry to this Office.
